UNDERGRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL MAJOR CHANGE BULLETIN
NO. 8 addendum no. 1
Spring 2009

---REQUIREMENTS---

The requirements listed below reflect the undergraduate major curricular changes approved by the Catalog Subcommittee since approval of the last Undergraduate Major Change Bulletin. All curricula are printed in their entirety under the headings Current and Proposed, respectively. The column to the far right indicates the date each change becomes effective.

Heading	Current	Proposed	Effective Date
Digital Technology & Culture, add certification requirements, for Pullman Campus only.	--N/A--	Certification will take place each semester approximately one month before registration for the following semester begins. To apply for certification a student must have the following: 24 hours; a minimum 2.2 gpa; one credit of ENGL 300 with evidence of projects OR sufficient evidence of facility in web authoring, animation, video production, and/or graphic design; and a written statement of purpose (approximately 500-750 words) explaining how the DTC major supports the student's career goals. Certification applications will be reviewed by a committee that includes the DTC Coordinator, one DTC faculty member, the Director of Undergraduates Studies, and one DTC instructor or a graduate student teaching DTC courses. Students will be placed in rank order and the top students will be certified based on how many spots are available. Transfer students with 55 or more hours should complete the certification requirements within two semesters. All students should certify before earning 90 hours.	8-09

Footnotes
1 Electives must be represented by an approved university minor in a second foreign language; 16 credits in a concentrated related field; or a second major in another field. A grade of C or better is required to advance in courses taught in the target language. A course graded P/F does not count toward the major. A maximum of 12 credits from a single-semester study abroad program may be applied toward the major or 18 credits from a year-long study abroad.

Foreign Languages & Cultures, revise minor in Russian	Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Russian, or Spanish To fulfill requirements for a minor in Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Russian, or Spanish, a student must complete a minimum of 17 credits of course work in one language area. A foundation of the target language, 203 and 204 (8 credits), is required; in addition, 3 courses (9 credits) must be taken in courses other than 203-204 at the 300-400 level taken in residence at WSU or through WSU-approved education abroad or educational exchange courses. All courses must be passed with a grade of C or better. Only courses thus designated in the Catalog may be repeated for credit toward the minor. Courses counting towards a minor in the language may not be counted towards a major in International Area Studies (i.e., Asian Studies, Latin America Area Studies, German Area Studies, or French and Francophone Area Studies). 105, 205, and 305 may not count towards the minor. For courses taken in Study Abroad Programs or as other transfer credits, please check with your advisor.	A minimum of 17 credits is required. A foundation of the target language, Russian 203 & 204 (8 credits), is required. In addition, 3 courses (9 credits) of further knowledge must be taken: Rus 321(G), Rus 361, Rus 410 (T), or Rus 430(T). If required Russian courses are not available, an approved course in another department may be included in the minor. See the department for a list of approved courses. A minimum of 9 credits with a letter grade must be taken in residency at WSU, of which 3 must be at the 300-400 level. All courses must be passed with a grade of C or better. Only courses designated as repeatable in the catalog may be repeated for credit toward the minor. Courses counting toward a minor in the language may not be counted toward a major in International Area Studies (i.e., Latin American Area Studies, German Area Studies, French and Francophone Area Studies, or Russian Area Studies). Rus 105, 205, and 305 may not count toward the minor. Other courses may be taken through approved education abroad or educational exchange programs courses. For transfer courses and courses taken in study abroad programs, please check with your advisor.	8-09
